U of M, Crookston Business Department announces New Articulation Agreement with Mesabi Range Community and Technical College

*By Itollefts on Friday, August 17, 2012*A new articulation agreement has been implemented by the Business Department at the University of Minnesota, Crookston with Mesabi Range Community and Technical College. The articulation agreement allows eligible students with an associate degree in business from Mesabi Range and Community and Technical College an option to transfer to the Crookston campus to complete a baccalaureate degree in business management either online or on site. The two-year community and technical college has campuses located in both Eveleth and Virginia, Minn. Articulation agreements are formal arrangements transferring a defined set of academic credits between an academic program of one institution, usually a two-year post-secondary institution, to a program within a college or campus of the University of Minnesota system in order to fulfill general education or program requirements. Benefits of an articulation agreement include Cost savings on tuition, fees, room and board; reduced chances of retaking the same coursework; and the opportunity to move from an associate degree to a bachelor's degree at the U of M, Crookston. For more information on the degree programs available in the Business Department at the U of M, Crookston, visit www.umcrookston.edu/academics/bus or call 218-281-8176 (800-UMC-MINN). Today the University of Minnesota, Crookston delivers 26 bachelor's degree programs, 18 minors, and 36 concentrations, including 10 online degrees, in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,600 undergraduates from 25 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
